

Walking holiday Encantada

22 January 2017 in Andalusia

Walking in Andalucia

If you love to walk this holiday is a great opportunity. During the beautiful walks, that take up three to five hours, relaxation and a good atmosphere we think are most important.

Participants stay in Encantada, a holiday home at a breath-taking location with a cosy living room and a big lush garden with a swimming pool. The bedrooms are tastefully decorated. It is possible that you share a room with another participant. The maximum number of participants is seven.

The walking holiday costs € 549,-. This includes the stay, breakfast, lunch, diner, tapas, drinks, airport transfers and local transport unless stated otherwise. Call, WhatsApp or e-mail us for more information: +31644510142.

Sunday

Arrival at Encantada with lunch and tapas.

Monday

A walk through the surroundings of Benamargosa. Today we cross tropical mango plantations on our way to the typical Andalusian white village with narrow streets and little picturesque squares. We have lunch in an authentic local restaurant. After that we walk our way back to Encantada.

Tuesday

Today we hike to the impressive Viñuela reservoir. Within several kilometres the scenery and agriculture changes drastically. Here vines, almond and olive trees are predominant. We visit a small olive oil factory and we have lunch in a restaurant in Los Romanes. On our way back we pass the highest ridge in the area. From here you have fabulous views towards the Mediterranean.

Wednesday

Today is a resting day. For participants without vertigo we offer the possibility to walk the Kings path near El Chorro. Other participants can enjoy some rest or discover the historical town of Vélez Málaga or the coastal village of Torre del Mar on their own.

Thursday

A stunning walk near Alcaucin shows the diversity of the Andalusian landscape. At the end of the walk a delicious barbecue is waiting for you with fish, meat and wonderful vegetarian delicacies.

Friday

We end the series of walks with a marvellous hike along the rocky coast near Maro. We have lunch in a cosy chiringuito on the beach (not included). Weather permitting you can have a swim in the sea.

Saturday

Optional visit to the trendy city of Malaga (lunch not included) before we drive to Malaga airport for the return flight.
