Walking holiday Encantada

11 May 2020 in Andalusia

Walking in Andalusia

For this sixth edition we have again selected wonderful new walks. As always we consider relaxation and a good atmosphere the most important.

Participants stay in Encantada, a holiday home at a breath-taking location with a cosy living room, nice bedrooms, a beautiful garden, a fruitful orchard and a delightful swimming pool. There is room for a maximum of seven participants.

The 6 days walking holiday costs €695. This includes the stay, airport transfers, local transport, lunch in authentic restaurants, breakfast, diner, tapas and drinks in Encantada. The flights we will book together in consultation.

Monday: Arriving and settling

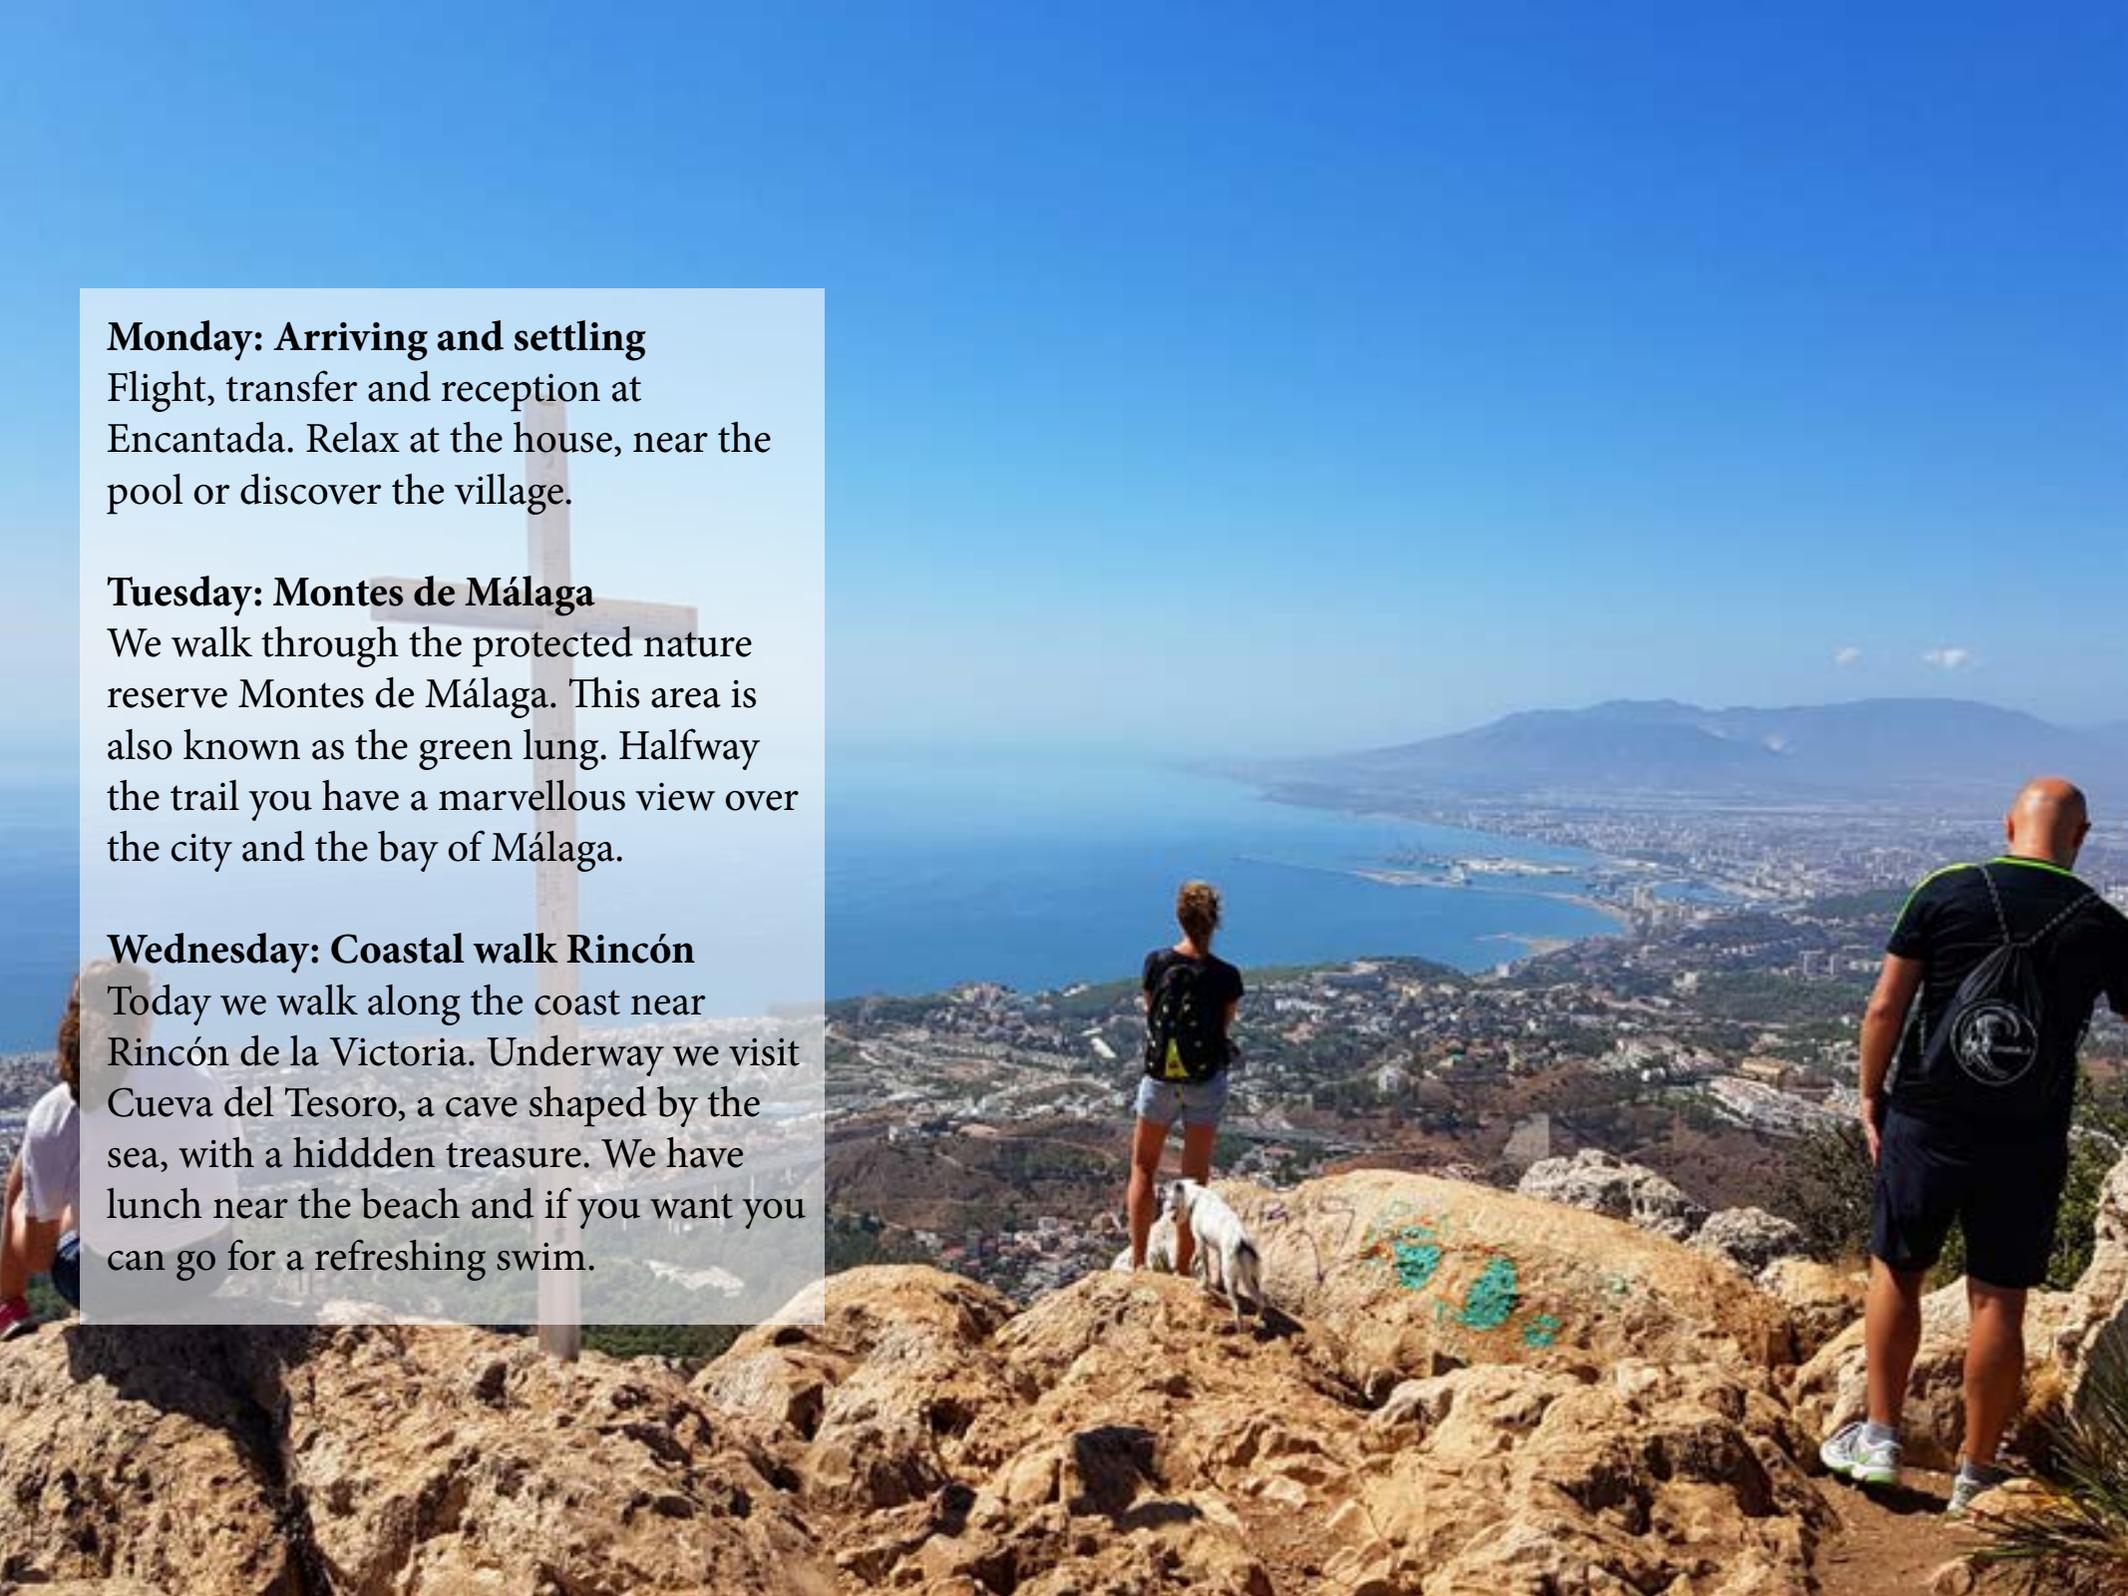

Flight, transfer and reception at Encantada. Relax at the house, near the pool or discover the village.

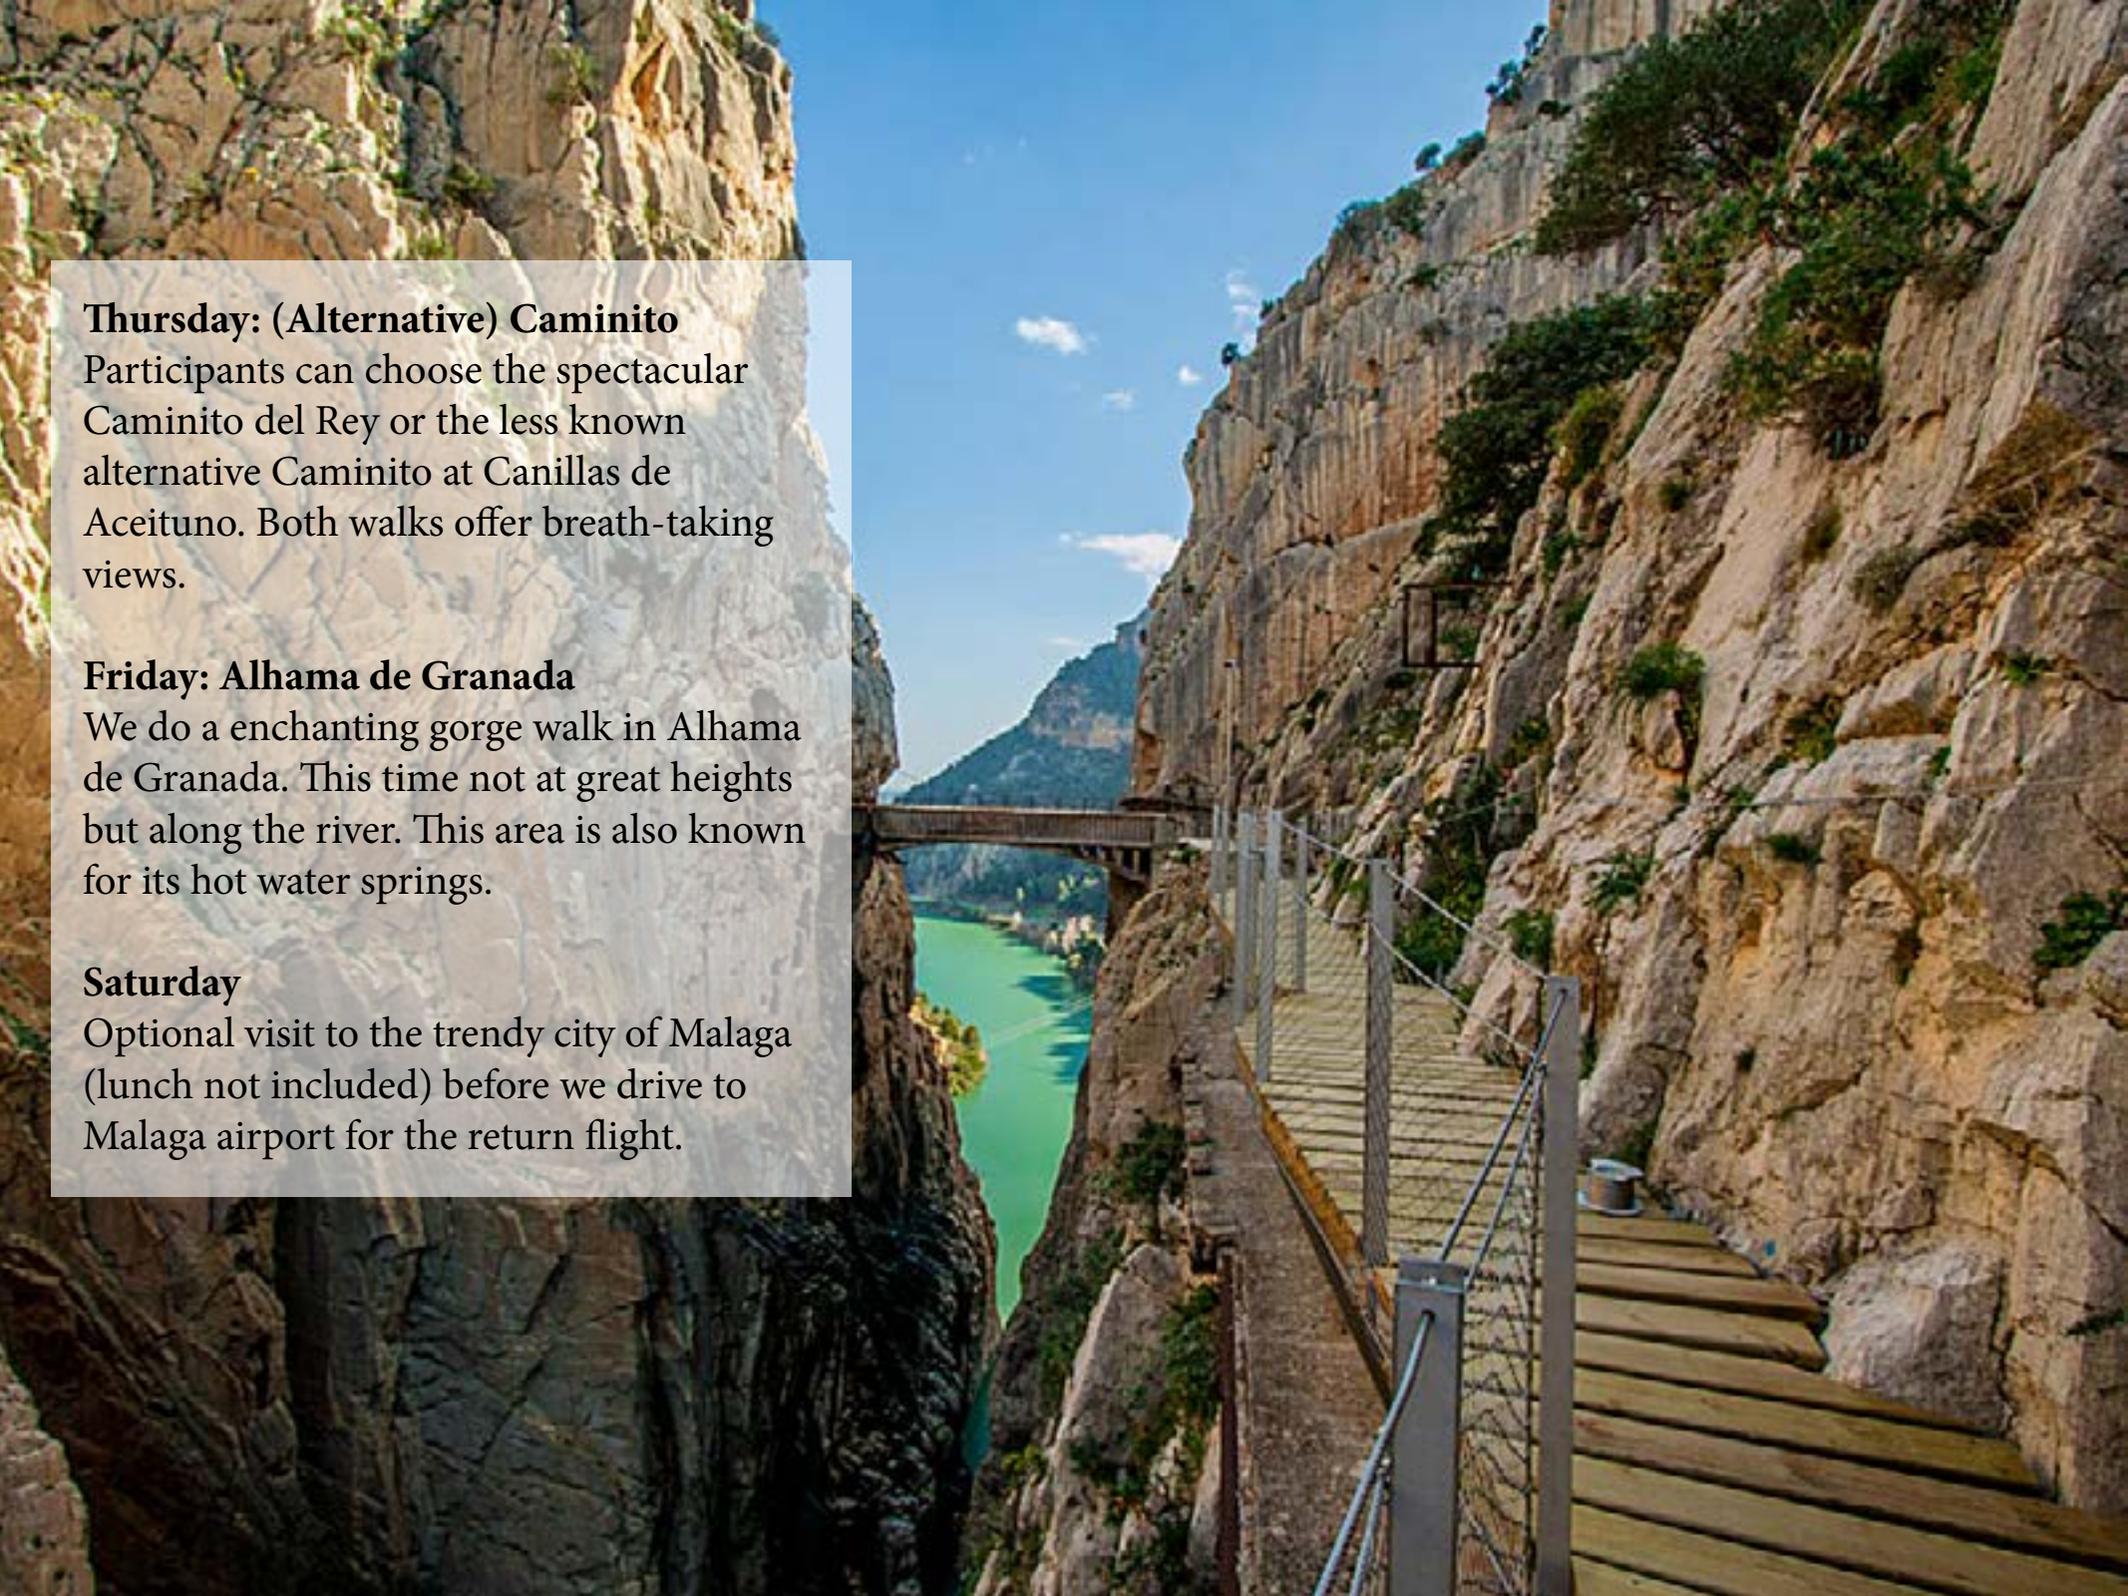

Tuesday: Montes de Málaga

We walk through the protected nature reserve Montes de Málaga. This area is also known as the green lung. Halfway the trail you have a marvellous view over the city and the bay of Málaga.

Wednesday: Coastal walk Rincón

Today we walk along the coast near Rincón de la Victoria. Underway we visit Cueva del Tesoro, a cave shaped by the sea, with a hidden treasure. We have lunch near the beach and if you want you can go for a refreshing swim.

Thursday: (Alternative) Caminito

Participants can choose the spectacular Caminito del Rey or the less known alternative Caminito at Canillas de Aceituno. Both walks offer breath-taking views.

Friday: Alhama de Granada

We do a enchanting gorge walk in Alhama de Granada. This time not at great heights but along the river. This area is also known for its hot water springs.

Saturday

Optional visit to the trendy city of Malaga (lunch not included) before we drive to Malaga airport for the return flight.
